OUTLINES.

William J. Bryan was wildly cheered upon his arrival in Chicago last night after touring Illinois throughout the day on a speaking tour. He was greeted by immense audiences and the feature of his speeches was the accusation that the Republicans are now preparing to purchase the election——The reception accorded the American fleet in Japan is conceded by the American naval officers to be the heartiest and most perfect since the fleet left Hampton Roads ——The situation between Bulgaria and Turkey showed signs of improvement yesterday, and war between the nations is not imminent——In the A. O. Brown & Co. investigation it was brought out that the mother of one of the members of the firm had made heavy loans to the company——Fisher, an American citizen has been held in the Russian prison for ten months under flimsy charges of implication in a murder——One person is killed and fifteen injured in a street car collision in Kansas City——The Federal Supreme Court denies the application of Pierce of the Pierce Oil Co. in the Texas extradition matter—— On account of the condition of Taft's throat many of his campaign appointments will have to be canceled—— The Federation of Labor is taking an active part in the campaign——A young married woman on Long Island is twice kidnapped by a band of ruffians——After a trip around the world the Battleship Maine drops anchor in Portsmouth harbor. She has made a voyage of 36,111 miles——In the divorce suit of Captain Hanes against his wife for divorce the court denies the latter's application for alimony and custody of the children. She files an affidavit in the case giving her side of the controversy ——Taft made speeches in New Jersey and Deleware during the day yesterday and at Baltimore at night—— New York markets: Money on call 1 1-4 to 1 3-4 per cent., ruling rate and closing 1 1-2, offered 1 3-4. Cotton quiet 10 points decline, middling uplands 9.20, middling gulf 9.45. Flour dull and barely steady. Wheat easy, No. 2 107 1-8 to 108 1-8 elevator. Corn steady, No. 2, 87 3-4 nominal elevator. Rosin quiet. Turpentine easy 39 1-2.

It looks like this campaign is going to produce a pretty good crop of libel suits.

Indications are that should Cannon get back in Congress he can be nothing greater than minority leader.

It is enough to make a horse laugh to hear Republicans talking about carrying two congressional districts in this State.

Isn't it something rather novel for a city to pay a man a commission to negotiate the sale of its bonds to his own firm?

Despite the peace conference and peace congress being held here and there it seems that war is almost inevitable over the situation in the Balkans.

Our experience of late with political prognosticators is that those who know the least about it are the ones ready to give you the most information on the subject.

Roosevelt may be second in the present political outlook; but he has one consolation—his holding a job does not depend on his party's success at the polls.

Bulgaria has an idea that she can whip the balance of Europe. She can give them a round in the difficult matter of settling international questions diplomatically.

If the wage-earner gets all that the Republican party promises him in case of that party's success there won't be anything left for the employer to pay his wages out of.

That is a most remarkable position Taft takes. He admits that the Republican party in the South is ignored by the administration because it is out-voted by the Democrats in this section.

If Roosevelt could simply have appointed Taft his successor the country would have been spared all the excitement and turmoil of this Presidential campaign—but then Roosevelt might have appointed himself instead of his Secretary of War.

Abruzzi will probably kick at prospective papa-in-law insisting that he shall go to work if he marries his daughter. Bruzzi wants to know what's the use of marrying an American heiress if he has to work to keep up the fortune instead of spending his day's diminishing it.

Taft thinks the Democrats of the South show a want of sense because they do not let local Republican tickets win in order that local Republicans may get their share of patronage from the Republican administration. That is asking a great deal of the Southern Democracy.

M. BUCKLEY BACK

PROFESSIONAL AND AMATEUR

Woman Lion Tamer From Ferarri Organization—Bareback and Burlesque Riding—Change of Location Announced—Notes.

Manager Louis W. Buckley, of the Elksfest, to be given in Wilmington the week of the second of November, has just returned from Raleigh where he attended the State Fair during the past week and rounded up a number of other attractions for the big show here. He was remarkably successful and has booked many additional attractions for the big fall festival.

Through arrangements with the Ferarri Trained Animal Show, the first appearance in this city of Mme. Zeuleki, the greaterst woman lion tamer in the world, the sensation of Paris for several years past, will take place. Madame Zeuleki perfoms some astonishing feats, including a beautiful fire dance in the midst of a group of lions and tigers.

There will be two professional bareback riding acts, and two burlesque riding acts. The trained elephant act will not be solely a burlesque. One of the cleverest trained clown elephants ever seen in the South comes to Wilmington with the King & Tucker show, which has been booked for this occasion.

Among the other professional acts will be those of Robetta, the high wire and bounding rope artist. La petite Kittie Irwin, will put on a splendid ring and contortion act. William Iwin, the champion trapeze head balancer of the world, and for over five years the sensational feature act of the Barnum & Bailey show, has been specially engaged for this occasion. Signor Perentor, in the marvelously beautiful hand ladder act, juggling act etc., will also be one of the professionals engaged for this occasion.

For the comedy features, in addition to the burlesque clowns, Pogue O'Brien, a clown known throughout the country for his clever work, and his "Whoa January Mule" will prove entertaining for not only the big ones, but the little ones.

A special sketch team of Misses Lizzie Roberts, and Marie Estelle, have been engaged for one of the menagerie and side show features, and Buster, the untamable lion, and Myrtle, the baby elephant, will also be displayed in the menagerie tent, as part of the professional programme. For the burlesque part, there will be the usual strong man act, burlesque trapeze and rings, slide for life, bearded woman and others. The side show tent will be 60x120 feet, or about the same size as Cole Bros' menagerie tent. The Clown and various acts are being rehearsed in several halls in the City, which have been engaged for the purpose. There will be two full dress rehearsals before the big performance takes place.

There will be a meeting of the ladies and gentlemen interested in the Elksfest, the Civic and Children's Playground Parade, and in a permanent Children's Playground organization, this afternoon in the parlors of The Orton. A number of prominent gentlemen interested in this movement will be present and explain the objects of the meeting, the purposes to be accomplished, and the necessity of a thorough organization. All are notified to be present.

Owing to the steady growth of the Elksfest scope, it has been found necessary to secure a change of the location and the big show will be pulled off just to the left of Seventeenth and Princess streets instead of on Castle, between Fourth and Fifth streets, as previously announced. The necessary permission, etc., was secured yesterday.

A number of handsome prizes to be awarded special features of the civic parade to be held during the week were placed on display yesterday in the show window of Honnett's jewelry store. These are for the best float of any fraternal organization, Elks excluded; best decorated auto, best decorated piece of fire apparatus, best commercial float, best float by school, public or private, school turning out largest number of children, best decorated vehicle by lady, most original pony, dog or go-cart, best decorated baby carriage or similar vehicle, slowest Elk in parade, for the Elk who doesn't get busy and others.

Townsend on Two Charges.

On two charges of assault, Will Townsend, colored, who was recently tried in connection with a shooting affair, but discharged for lack of evidence, was yesterday fined $10 and the costs in two cases for striking two colored women. The cases were heard in Justice Furlong's court, and in default of the fine and costs he was commited to jail, and will later be sent to the county roads unless he can raise the required amount.

NEGRO DEAD FROM FALL

John Boney Fell From Water Tank on Coast Line Yard Yesterday Afternoon—Died Within Five Hours.

John Boney, colored, 30 or 35 years of age, employed by the Atlantic Coast Line as a fireman or roundhouse man in this city, fell from the water tank located just east of the bridge at the passenger station yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock and received injuries from which he died five hours later in the James Walker Memorial Hospital.

It appears that Boney was on an engine being made ready to take out the afternoon train on the Atlantic Coast Line to Columbia, S. C., and the engine had been run down on the yards under the tank for the purpose of filling the tender preparatory to leaving. The colored man went up on the tank to release the valve for the water connection and in so doing had hold of a cord or weight which gave way or from which he lost his hold, plunging headforemost downward a distance of perhaps 25 feet to the yards below. He was rendered unconscious and was at once hurried to the hospital by Dr. Thomas, who gave him first attention. There it was found that he had a fracture at the base of the brain, one arm was broken and he had suffered other injuries. Although given the best of attention, Boney died at 8 o'clock last night. It was seen from the first that there was little hope of his recovery. The colored man, it is said, came to Wilmington from Burgaw where his family resides. He had been employed at the Coast Line several months and was very well thought of by his employers.

The fracture of the negro's skull at the base of the brain is probably the wound that caused his death. It is thought that in falling his head struck some obstacle, most probably one of the railroad tea irons on the yards below.

IN HONOR OF MR. MUNSON

Many Wilmington friends of Mr. John B. Munson will be interested to know that at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Georgia Southern and Florida Railway in Macon, Ga., on Thursday of last week, he was elected vice president of the company. The Macon Daily Telegraph of the following day, in speaking of the gathering of prominent railroad men says:

"A pleasant feature of the visit of the officers of the Georgia Southern and Florida to Macon was the luncheon given by Mr. Wallace E. McCaw in honor of President W. W. Finley and Vice President J. B. Munson.

"The elaborate decorations throughout the house were pink and white roses, and in the dining room, where the bare mahogany table was laid with mats of exquisite Mexican drawn work, the floral centerpiece was of pink and white long-stemmed chrysanthemums in a tall cut glass vase. Covers were laid for twelve and an excellent menu of several courses was served. Seated at the table were Messrs. McCaw, W. W. Finley, J. B. Munson, Fairfax Harrison, Henry B. Spencer, Reuben Foster, J. S. B. Thompson, J. F. Hanson, William McEwen Johnston, T. D. Tinsley, Emmett Small, A. L. Miller."

DEATH OF YOUNG LADY.

Miss Mattie McGowan Died Sunday Following Long Illness.

The death of Miss Mattie Elizabeth McGowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McGowan, which occurred at the home of her parents on Masonboro Sound Sunday afternoon, was learned of with infinite sorrow by her many friends. Although she had been in declining health for a period of several months, her death brought unmitigated sadness to the bereaved parents and relatives. She was held in the highest esteem by all of her acquaintances.

Miss McGowan was 18 years old and was a devoted member of the Masonboro Baptist church, and her life gave promise of great usefulness. The funeral was held from Southside Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock conducted by Rev. G. A. Martin, the pastor, and the remains were interred in Masonboro cemetery. The last sad rites were attended by a large concourse of friends, and there were many beautiful floral tributes.

Reported Suicide at East Arcadia.

Parties from up the Carolina Central railroad in the city yesterday told of the suicide of young Mr. Chas. Taylor, about 28 years of age, near East Arcadia last Friday morning. With a brother, neither of them married, they were living alone and one of them was away Friday morning when the other is said to have fastened a string to the trigger of a shot gun, trained the muzzle to his chin and fired the load, carrying away a part of his head, death resulting instantly. The body was later found and the interment was in the family burying ground on Saturday.

AFFAIRS IN RALEIGH

SERVICE NOT YET SECURED

Order From Insurace Department. Engagement of Ceburn D. Harris. Towns and Cities Must Comply With Fire Waste Law.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 19.—Much interest attaches to the $50,000 damage suit just instituted in the United States District Court of the Eastern District of North Carolina here by Associate Justice W. A. Montgomery, of the North Carolina Supreme Court, for alleged libellous charges in a card recently published by Dixon.

Mr. Dixon telegraphed here tonight: "I will fight the Montgomery suit to the bitter end, employing the finest lawyers in North Carolina and New York."

Judge Montgomery has for several years, since his retirement from the Surpeme Court bench of this State, been standing master for the United States Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina under appointment of Judge Thomas R. Purnell and holds that position at this time. The suit is in Judge Purnell's court. The subpoena and other papers instituting the suit are now in the hands of United States Marshal Claudius Dockery and his deputies for service on Thos. Dixon and others interested.

State Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young issues a special notice to citizens of North Carolina to the effect that the license of the Industrial Life and Health Insurance Company, of Atlanta, to do business in this State has been cancelled and that any agent representing this company in the State is liable to fine and imprisonment under the State law, being prohibited from soliciting new business and collecting premiums on old policies.

The engament of Mr. Ceburn Dodd Harris, of Raleigh, and Miss Augusta Strater Willey, of Louisville, Ky., is announced by Mrs. Elizabeth Strater Willey, mother of the bride-to-be at Louisville. Mr. Harris is chemist in charge of the pure food department of the State Department of Agriculture.

The North Carolina delegation to the annual convention of the Association of Southern States Commissioners of Agriculture and Agricultural Workers to convene in Nashville, Tenn., tomorrow noon left today, the party including Commissioner of Agriculture W. A. Graham, T. B. Parker, C. D. Harris and State Veterinarian Tait Butler.

Official notice is being served by State Insurance Commissioner J. R. Young on the authorities of the various towns of North Carolina that if they expect their towns to participate in the Firemen's Relief Fund, provided for by the last Legislature through a tax on insurance premiums in the respective towns, the building laws of the State must be strictly complied with and properly enforced by the town authorities and each town must file with the Commissioner by October 31st a statement of the value of property used for fire protection in the city and all other information called for by the Commissioner. Towns failing to comply with these conditions will have no funds for Firemens' Relief collected for them.

Had a Second Encounter.

Another personal difficulty occurred on Sunday afternoon about 5 o'clock between Mr. J. Fred Russ and Mr. D. E. Costin, who had a fight in front of Mr. W. M. Cumming's office last Saturday. However, the second difficulty as the first was of short duration only one blow being passed. The affair occurred on the sidewalk in front of the Fulton House, on Front street, where the two men had some words regarding the Saturday encounter, whereupon Mr. Costin struck at Mr. Russ, but they were immediately separated. Both were placed under arrest and in Justice Bornemann's court yesterday morning, Mr. Costin submitted to an assault and paid the costs of the action.

MAYOR'S MONDAY COURT

Usual Number of Penitents on The Bench For First Business Day of Week—Cutting Affray Saturday Midnight.

The session of the police court yesterday consumed considerable time and Mayor Springer tried many defendants, most of whom were on minor charges, however. George Fisher James Green, and Berthan Levane, negro boys, who admitted that they committed several robberies in various parts of the city, one of which was at the Bijou Theatre, where a number of valuable articles were stolen, on charges of disorderly conduct were sent to the county roads for 60 days each. As soon as the road sentence expires they will be tried on the robbery charge.

Frank Teachey and Henderson Hays, for drunkenness, and Charlotte Brown for disorderly conduct, were given 30 days each on the county roads.

Judson Wheeler, charged with disorderly conduct and carrying a concealed weapon was given a hearing and discharged in both cases. Clayton Grant, Esq., appeared in behalf of the defendant.

The case charging youn Mr. Adair McKoy with violating a city ordinance by fast driving around a corner, was continued until next Tuesday at the request of Marsden Bellamy, Sr., Esq., whom he has employed to defend the case.

Ike Davis, a colored "bully," would have been in court for a rather serious affair but for the fact he eluded the police Saturday about midnight after he had created much of a rough house in A. B. C. alley. The trouble was at the house of Josephine Smith, colored, into which Davis forced his way, slashed up a negro man named Joe Johnson whom he found there and also brutally assaulted the woman. Johnson had to be sent to the hospital for repairs to his anatomy. Davis armed himself with a shot gun from the house and took his departure before an outcry was raised.

"DAKOTA BOB" IS HERE.

World Famous Pedestrian Bound From Washington to Mexico City, Mex.

A unique character reached the city yesterday from Newbern in the person of "Dakota Bob," heralded as the world champion pedestrian who has covered 75,000 miles on foot in the past 16 years. "Dakota Bob" got in yesterday about noon from Newbern and his picturesque appearance on the streets, clad in Western raiment and bedecked with many medals, attracted no little interest. He is now on a trip from Washington, D. C., to deliver to President Diaz at Mexico City, Mex., a medal which was committed to him not many weeks ago in Washington. He came via Norfolk, Richmond and other places of interest en route and has a large album well filled with press accounts of his travels and other data in regard to his journey. "Dakota Bob" has been engaged by the Bijou, on North Front street, for three nights to appear and give an account of his travels. He leaves here Thursday for Charleston, S. C., resuming his journey.

WERE MARRIED HERE.

Mr. Oscar Anderson, of Michigan and Miss Myrtle Ewald, of Bolton.

A quiet marriage was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lutheran church parsonage, by Rev. W. A. Snyder, the parties being Miss Myrtle Ewald, of Bolton, and Mr. Oscar Anderson, of Cheboykan, Michigan. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few friends among whom were Mr. and Mrs. William Eward, parents of the bride, of Bolton, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaLond, of Bolton. The happy nuptials will be of much interest to the friends of the couple.

The groom formerly held a position with the Waccamaw Lumber Co., but in recent months has been engaged in the lumber business in Michigan. The bride is a young lady with a host of admirers. The couple left shortly after the marriage for their future home in Michigan.

CITY MAKES OFFER

Offers as Compromise to Seasgood & Mayer Five Per Cents on Same Basis.

A CONFERENCE YESTERDAY

Board of Aldermen Tenders Fives at $105, Amounting to Same as 4 1-2 Per Cents at 96—Another Meeting.

After another fight of more than two hours in a vain effort to get around the legal obstacles in the way of a delivery of the $200,000 water works and sewerage bonds alleged to have been recently sold to Seasongood & Mayer, of Cincinnati, the Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance in joint conference in the Mayor's office at the City Hall from 4:30 to 6:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon decided to disregard the former transaction altogether and to hear a new proposition on a 5 per cent. basis from the Ohio firm. This proposition was received and a counter-proposition was made by the Board of Aldermen which is now being considered by the representative of Seasongood & Mayer, a final decision to be reached today.

Present at the meeting yesterday afternoon were Mayor Springer presiding, all members of the Board of Aldermen except Mr. Northrop, who is out of the city, and Alderman Karr, who found it impossible to be present; City Attorney Marsden Bellamy, Jr.; Chairman H. C. McQueen and Messrs. Tiencken and Wilder, of the Board of Audit and Finance. The two last named, however, retired before the conference was concluded and the proposition to Seasongood & Mayer was only by the Aldermen in an agreement to accept a bid on a 5 per cent. bond upon the same basis as it was proposed to sell the 4 1-2 per cent. security, provided such a bid was made at a further meeting to be officially called.

Mayor Springer stated that the conference had been called at the request of Chairman Bolles, of the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen, who was asked to state the object of the meeting. Dr. Bolles stated that in conversation Saturday with Mr. J. B. Works, the representative of Seasongood & Mayer, who was then present, it had occurred to him that the two boards should settle the matter of delivery of the bonds one way or another. Mr. Works, without waiving any rights as to the alleged former sale, had asked him what was the sentiment of the boards on a new sale of the bonds altogether on a 5 per cent. basis. He asked Mr. Works to make a statement.

Mr. Works stated that not all had been present at the former meeting with the Board of Audit and Finance and the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen and he made a similar statement as to having accepted the sale of Sept. 2nd as in good faith and thought the city was in duty bound to deliver the bonds at 4 1-2 per cent., justifying the bonus of $8,000 allowed his firm on the implied authority in the statute for necessary expenses in consummating the deal. After reviewing the situation and the objections, legal and otherwise, that had been raised to the former sale, he wanted to know if instead of carrying out the former contract, the city would like to entertain an entirely new proposition to sell the bonds at 5 per cent., which would be legal under the statute which provided for either private or public sale.

Mr. French said he would personally oppose the issue being taken up privately unless a five per cent. bond was advertised. Mr. Works replied that he thought his house should be allowed some consideration under a resale upon the abrogation of the former contract. The Mayor asked the City Attorney for his opinion on the former sale being a contract. Mr. Bellamy gave the unqualified opinion that the city was not legally under any contract with Seasongood & Mayer as he had previously explained. Mr. Works replied that his firm had taken counsel and was fully convinced that the contract was a legal one. Mr. Works was then asked what his proposition was to take the bonds and he stated that he would make a compromise of the former contract with the city by taking the fives at $102.50 which would amount to $5,000 premium on the $200,000 issue. He said that he would much rather have the original 4 1-2 per cent. purchase, but would like to close the matter up one way or another without litigation. The highest premium the city had heretofore been offered for fives was less than $1,000.

Mr. French asked him if his house would take the whole $500,000 issue at that price. Mr. Works replied that he thought the market would not absorb so many securities of one issue at one time and thought the city would profit as other cities had done by selling them as the money was needed.

Alderman Wood said he had just learned that the city of Atlanta had

THE POLITICAL CAMPAIN.

We do not recall any previous presidential campaign in which the press of the country, especially the leading dailies, were so anxious and went to so much trouble and expense to give the public a true statement of the political situation before election in so far as they were able to give it. Papers which in their editorial columns were biased on the one side or the other, have endeavored through their news columns and by means of staff correspondence to give their readers a correct idea of the political situation as now existing and as changing from day to day. There is a great deal of figuring and guessing as to what will be the outcome of the presidential election. We believe the big dailies of the country, that is some of them, are doing what they can to keep up with the political situation and to keep their readers informed as to prospects of the two parties, but with all their efforts their work is little more than blind forecast or guesswork. This is one of the most remarkable campaigns that has ever been conducted in this country. All that any one can say is that the election is in doubt and no one can tell how it will turn out. That Bryan has a better showing than he did in either former time of his candidacy is all that can be positively said in his favor, and of this there can be no doubt; but how great is that difference from former occasions is a question which none can answer until after the election. Bryan and his campaign managers seem sure of his election. On the other hand Taft and his campaign managers are as sure of another Republican victory. There is not a living man who can tell what the result will be. The thing for the Democrats to do is to act upon the supposition that victory is within their grasp if they will only exert themselves to secure it. They cannot gain the victory by sitting still and waiting for it to come to them. They must work and work diligently for it. If they do this they can secure the victory. Then why not put forth our best efforts if there is such a prize ahead as reward for good work.

HELP THE CAUSE.

The Democrats of North Carolina always do their duty when it comes to facing the enemy in a hand to hand fight, but there are more ways than that in which good party men can show their loyalty and their adherence to Democratic principles. The managers of the campaign need funds. They have time and again let this be known to the members of the party and have urged them to come forward with their contributions. What has our our State done in this matter? Our people are for behind those of other States. We should be ashamed ourselves. Read this letter from Mr. T. M. Brown of Maxton to the Charlotte Observer, published in last Saturday's issue of that paper:

"The published list of contributors to the national campaign fund, in your issue of yesterday, attracted very general attention, with more or less comment. Some express their disappointment at North Carolina's share; and by comparison feel that she has done too little, this feeling especially so as to the individual one-hundred-an-upward class. Oklahoma furnishes thirty-seven of that class and North Carolina four, these four being private citizens, with one exception. South Dakota equals and North Dakota doubles her. Some express their surprise, with regret, though without reflection, that the names of none of our Congressmen appear, though all express the hope that the "tightwads" (a term applied to South Carolina) may be loosened and the good work continued until success is assured."

Isn't this enough to make the Democrats of this State feel small, to make them wish that they had contributed enough to the Democratic campaign fund to prevent their being classed as they are—among the smallest contributors to the Democratic campaign fund, when they have so much to gain by the election to the presidency of a real Democrat. The Star has done all it could to induce our people to help out the cause in a way in which they could. If the cause fails of success the blame will rest with the people and they will have themselves and none else to blame.

WILMINGTON'S RESIDENTIAL SUBURBS.

One who wants to learn how Wilmington is growing has only to take a walk into the suburbs of the city and see how rapidly they are growing, especially east of the city limits where a beautiful suburban residential section is springing up. In a short while that will be one of the prettiest parts of the city. Handsome residences are going up and beautiful streets are being laid out. Suburban residences are a new thing with our city. Heretofore residences have been crowded within the city limits which tendency has not been conducive to beautifying our city. We are glad to see that a change has come over the spirit of our people and that they have turned their attention to building up suburban residential sections and beautifying the same. Present indications are that in the course of a short while Wilmington will have as beautiful suburbs, composed of handsome residences and well kept grounds as any city in the South. Our city is "spreading out" in more ways than one and our people seem to have just learned the advantages and the comforts of suburban residences. Wilmington has natural advantages for suburban residences, and now that the ice has been broken and the movement begun we look for it to grow with great rapidity and our city soon to be surrounded with handsome residential suburbs.

A FATED FAMILY.

A Galveston dispatch announces that in the recent death of Albert T. Coleman the seventh member of that family had died, "with his boots on." In other words that he is the seventh member of the family who had died a violent death. Of the large family living up to a short while ago the aged morther is the only member still alive. The Galveston dispatch gives the death record of the large faimly:

"Some years ago, the father and one brother of the last victim were killed in a sheriff's posse by cattle raiders; another brother was killed by a steer; a sister by being thrown from a buggy in a runaway. A strange coincidence of the latest tragedy is that on the same day of the week four years ago and seven years ago, two of his brothers were killed, one by a Mexican and the other by the accidental discharge of his pistol."

Although the Republicans have made a show of nominating candidates for Congress in opposition to the Democrats in nearly every district in this State we do not suppose they expect to be taken in earnest in this matter. It is true they may have some faint hope of carrying two of the districts in the west, but they can't have much hope even of doing that. But as for defeating such Democrats as Small, Thomas and Godwin, of course they have not the faintest idea, and why they should go to the trouble and expens of making a show of attempting to do so is a mystery to us unless it be that they are after getting a draft on the party's national campaign treasury by making a show of apposition to the Democrats. Some of the local leaders must be in need of funds.

As seen in our news columns, it is reported that Judge Montgomery has brought suit against Tim Dixon for libel on account of the letter the latter had written to the News and Observer about the latter's speech delivered in Raleigh a short while ago on reconstruction days in this State. Judge Montgomery will have up-hill work in vindicating himself before a North Carolina jury for having delivered such a speech. If such a suit has been or is to be brought we suppose it is a big case of bluff.

We hear a good deal just now about the low price of cotton and the results of the panic of last fall being still felt, but the many circuses and fairs do not seem to have known that there ever had been such a thing as a panic in the country or that farmers were depressed by the fact that the price of cotton is three cents lower than it was a year ago.

The Woman's Home Companion for November, which has just been issued, will be a thing of beauty and a joy for some time for all those who secure a copy of this splendid household magazine. It is by far the most interesting number of this publication that we have seen for a long time.

CURRENT COMMENT

—Speaker Cannon is selling property and getting hold of ready money. The average cost of votes in Illinois is said to be $5. Mr. Cannon will probably be re-elected.—Winston Journal.

—The Nebraskan is going to take the Short Line to the Maryland capital, but the betting is still 3 to 1 that he does not take a short line to the nation's capital.—Baltimore News. No, he is going there by The People's Line, although his Republican opponent is trying to head him off by taking short cuts.—Norfolk Virginian Pilot.

—Senator Aldrich, the Republican leader of the Senate, said in that body at its last session, "the financial crisis, which culminated in a serious panic in October, was the most acute and destructive in its immediate consequences of any that has occurred in the history of the country." And we had the Republican high tariff all the time.—News and Observer.

—Cries of "Bryan!" while Mr. Taft was addressing a Kentucky audience drew from him the remark: "It is just such instances as this which show why it is that the Democratic party never gets control of the government. It has elements in it which lack the slightest sense of responsibility, decency or courtesy." A Presidential candidate who is jolted about the country making a score of speeches a day at way stations has a right to feel peevish now and then. But on the whole Mr. Taft has fared exceedingly well in this campaign. Nowhere has he encountered such rowdy treatment as either Mr. Bryan or Mr. Roosevelt did in previous years. Because a few partisians shout for the opposing candidate does not signify that one party is all virtue and the other all vileness.—New York World.

—The Charleston News and Courier comes forward with what it professedly conceives to be the highly graceful assertion, upon proofs of its own, that Col. Sid C. Tapp, candidate of the bran-new Liberal party for President, was born in North Carolina. It will "make no attempt to conceal a circumstance so creditable to our sister State" and declares that South Carolina feels a just pride in her sister's sons, of whom Sidney Tapp is a favorite." While the Observer greatly admires the unique personality and literary genius of Colonel Tapp—a sort of Atlanta Shakespeare—and does not esteem his party the less because it consists mainly of himself numercially as well as intellectually, we cannot accept him in behalf of North Carolina without some definite evidence.—Charlotte Observer.

—"When you are carried in the pocket of a man, and make an uncomfortable disturbance in that pocket, you are not going to exercise much influence with the gentleman owning the pocket."—Taft at Bristol. Here is subtle flattery, and pleasing insinuation, and inspiring suggestion of the functions of government, all in one compact sentence. Analyze it. The Union is the pocket, the Republican party is the gentleman who owns and carries it, and the South is the package which had better lie still and behave. Was ever more insolent assumption packed into so few words? But we suppose the unsavory illustration occurred to the speaker by reason of the fact that it fairly describes his own unfortunate relation to President Roosevelt. Having been carried so long in the breeches pocket of that imperious gentleman, he has discovered the policy of snugging quietly there in conformity with every movement of his proprietor's majestic limbs. Perhaps at first he grew restive sometimes and was hid away in some dark closet for a time, until he learned that docile submission, though irksome, would pay best. Certainly in the end he seems to have gained enough "influence with the gentleman owning the pocket" to reap an exceedingly great reward.—Virginian-Pilot.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Darling, I mean to prove my love for you, not by words, but by deeds." "Oh, George, did you bring the deeds with you?"—Baltimore American.

—"My friend do you worship your Creator?" asked the solemn-visaged individual. "Sure," replied the man with the red tie. "I'm a self-made man."—Philadelphia Record.

—His Neighbor—Whom are you going to vote for, Pat? Pat—Begorra, I'm not goin' to be after losin' me vote, so I'll vote for nayther wan or the other—Puck.

—"Why does he hang around the piano? He just murdered his song." "Well, they claim a criminal can't keep away from the scene of the offense."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—Diggs—You believe that whiskey is good for a cold, don't you? Swiggs—Yes; but how did you know? Diggs—Oh, I've noticed that you nearly always have a cold.—Chicago Daily News.

—"How is young Chunkett getting on in college?" "Splendidly. He would have made the scrub team his first year if he hadn't been deficient in all of his studies." — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—"You are not very enthusiastic about the election." "Nope," answered Farmer Corntossel. "The nearest I kin ever git to enthusiasm in any election is to persuade myself to cheer up an' hope fer the best."—Washington Star.

—Squire's Daughter—Would you mind throwing your little boy into the pond? I want to see if my dog will rescue him. Villager—Certainly not, Squire's Daughter—I do wish you would. You're the second woman I've asked who has said "No".—Punch.

—"What will we do when the trees are destroyed?" asked the forestry expert. "I suppose," answered the serenely solemn statesman after some thought, "that in such an event we will be obliged to depend for wood entirely on the lumber yards."—Washington Star.

Some months later, an abscess began growing inside me, and after taking doctors medicine without relief, two doctors held council and said the only hope for me was an operation.

MRS. EVA BASHORE, N. Manchester, Ind.

"I dreaded an operation, so I began to take Cardui, and in ten weeks I gained 25 pounds. When I began to take Cardui, I could scarcely walk across the floor. Now I am well, and work every day. AFFAIRS IN LUMBERTON

Mrs. Mary E. Rozier Died Suddenly Saturday Night—News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Lumberton, N. C., Oct. 19.—A feeling of sadness spread over Lumberton yesterday morning when it was reported that Mrs. Mary E. Rozier had died suddenly at 11 o'clock, Saturday night. Up to a very short time before her death, she was in her usual health. Mrs. Rozier was the widow of the late Mr. R. A. Rozier, who died several years ago, and was 58 years old. She is survived by three daughters and four sons, three of the latter residing in other States. The funeral was conducted this morning at 10:30 o'clock by Rev. E. M. Hoyle, pastor of the Methodist church, and the interment made in the East Lumberton cemetery.

Mayor John A. Rowland was removed from his residence yesterday to the Thompson Hospital, where he is said to be slightly improving.

Mr. A. Bicherey, proprietor of the Wavely Hotel, has rented the Columbia, which has been closed for some time, and will use it as an annex to the Waverly, taking charge the first of November——Mr. Daniel F. McNeill left this morning for Augusta, Ga., where he goes as a witness in a railroad case.

A ten-year-old white boy, giving his name as Lawrence Grimsley, was lodged in jail here Friday night on the charge of larceny. It is said that three or four weeks ago he secreted himself in a store at Lumber Bridge, and was locked in when the store was closed. He took some few articles and left during the night, but was caught next day and most of the things were recovered. A lady in the neighborhood offered to take him and give him a home and send him to school. He went with her and she supplied his needs for clothes and started him to school. He attended school two weeks, when, it is said, he took the lady's pocket book with $13 in cash, and left for Fayetteville. When he was overtaken he had spent all but $4. He was brought back to this county and the magistrate who was consulted about the matter decided that the best thing to do was to jail him and let the judge say at the next term of court what is best to do with him. He is said to be a native of the Black Ankle section.

A slight change in schedule went into effect on the Raleigh & Charleston Railroad today. The train will now leave here for Marion at 9:50 A. M., instead of 9:55 and arrive from Marion at 5:10 P. M., instead of 5:30. This change does not interfere with the railroad connections.

THE A. O. BROWN FAILURE

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Minnie E. Young, mother of Lewis Ginter Young, a member of the failed brokerage firm of A. O. Brown & Co., told at today's session of the investigation into the affairs of the firm of having made large loans to that firm in 1906 and shortly before the firm failed. While she was testifying her son wrote a statement declaring that his connection with the firm had cost his mother $1,100,000, a large part of which was lost in the collapse of the San Domingo Gold and Copper Company. Mrs. Young testified that she loaned 2,000 shares of preferred stock of the American Tobacco Company and $50,000 worth of that company's bonds to A. O. Brown & Co., in 1906, and thereafter was paid $1,000 a month for the loan. She was also paid $1,000 a month for her part of the financing of the Whitney syndicate, which was one of the ventures in which A. O. Brown &Co., were interested. Shortly before the failure Mrs. Young said she loaned the firm $100,000 worth of securities to enable them to get their checks certified. This was returned to her on the day on which she loaned it.

HELD IN RUSSIAN PRISON.

An American Citizen Held for Ten Months Under Flimsy Charge.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—The case of Adolph Fisher, a naturalized American citizen who has been held for the past ten months in Russian jails, has been taken up by the Russian press and with this co-operation the efforts of the American embassy to secure the release of Fisher may prove successful.

Fisher was arrested in a restaurant in Samura frequented by petty criminals, on the suspicion of being implicated in a murder. Subsequently his innocence was established, but he was kept in jail in St. Petersburg, where, in the meantime, he had been transferred. The foreign office has repeatedly assured the embassy that it has nothing against Fisher and is ready to turn him over to the American authorities at some American port.

Fisher claims that he was not aware of the character of the restaurant where he was arrested.

—Greenville, S. C., Oct. 18.—Abe Dill, a well-known and highly respected farmer of Saluda township, this county, was shot and almost instantly killed Saturday by Posey Barton, according to a report received in the city tonight. Barton is said to be at large. No cause has been assigned for the killing. No particulars of the killing could be obtained.

just floated a million dollar issue at 4 1-2 per cent. at $105. Mr. Works explained that Atlanta so far as the bond market is concerned is all in a class by itself. It was selling fours at a premium some time ago when Birmingham, Ala., fives were selling below par. All Georgia bonds sold well because of the fact that they were validated in the courts before they were sold according to the laws of that State.

Mr. McQueen said he thought Seasongood & Mayer were in a different position before the boards than at the beginning of the negotiations. They had since entered into a contract with the city; whether the sale was legal or illegal, that should have been known before. The city, if necessary, should make some concessions to Seasongood & Mayer because the former transaction had been in good faith on both sides and when it could not be carried out through no fault of the purchasers, they should have consideration. The trade made with them at first was even $5,000 better than was offered now on 5 per cent. basis. He really thought the city should try to adjust this matter; Seasongood & Mayer had incurred considerable expense and if they insist on a delivery, that would mean a law suit and the consequent cost. Their attorney says it was a legal sale and the city attorney says it was not. In any event the controversy would cost considerable.

The Mayor read a statement to the effect that 4 1-2 per cents sold at 96, the former proposition, would really amount to borrowing the money at 4.72 per cent. whereas the bid then submitted for fives would be between $5,000 and $6,000 more than the original. The Mayor favored waiting for legislative action to legalize the sale.

The City Attorney suggested that legislative authority should either be awaited or Seasongood & Mayer should get out a mandamus in the courts to compel the city to deliver the securities. The legally could then be tested once for all and the cost need not be great.

Mr. Tiencken stood squarely on the opinion of the City Attorney and favored either a friendly suit in the courts or legislative enactment before going forward with a clearly illegal proposition. There would be other bonds to sell and if a bonus is required to sell them, it should be settled now once forever. Mr. King favored abiding strictly by the opinion of the City Attorney; he was elected for nothing, if not to give the boards advice on such matters.

Mr. Bellamy was further asked if a sale could then be made on a five per cent. basis. He said that it could, provided the Board was satisfied that the sale would be as good as it would be possible to make on a 5 per cent. basis; that it was incumbent on the boards to exercise all due diligence in having the bonds bring just as much as possible. If he understood it, no bids had been asked for on a five per cent. basis and he was not sufficiently well enough informed as to bonds to know whether the offer was a reasonable one and as good as the city could secure after using all due diligence to make a sale at the highest market value.

Mr. O'Brien thought Seasongood & Mayer should be treated fairly but the boards would of course have to be guided by the advice of the City Attorney; he thought there would be nothing lost in waiting a couple of months for the Legislature to meet and grant the required authority. He thought the original sale a good one and both boards could pledge their best effort to get the enabling act by the Legislature to carry the deal through.

Mr. Ellis saw no reason for not waiting until the Legislature meets. The bond market would no doubt be better at the first of the year. If Seasongood & Mayer had any claim on the city they could go into the courts to determine the matter. Dr. Bolles explained that regardless of the bond market the first of the year, it would have nothing to do with the case in point. Seasongood & Mayer had made a contract with the city and the Legislature would only be asked to legalize the sale already made. Mr. Ellis said possibly he had been misunderstood; he was willing to carry out in good faith any promise the Board would make to Seasongood & Mayer and he for one would be willing to do so if it was shown that the contract made was a legal one.

Mr. Jewell felt that the city was under obligations to Seasongood & Mayer but he thought nothing would be lost in waiting for legislative authority to pay the bonus on which the controversy hinges.

Mr. O'Brien asked how much difference there was between the original alleged sale and the offer then for fives. It was stated that $102 1-2 for fives was about the same thing as 93 1-2 for four and half per cents., whereas the original bid was 96. Mr. O'Brien moved that the present contract stand provided the Legislature gives the authority as to legality. Then the question arose as to the possibility of the Legislature passing the enabling act, if the bond market at that time should happen to be above 96 for Wilmington bonds. This brought on much more discussion as to the legality of the sale at 96 even with legislative authority and it was finally suggested that in order to come clearly within the law that the city make a new sale of the $200,000 in bonds at five per cent. on the same basis as it was proposed to sell the 4 1-2 per cents at 96. This would figure out according to Montgomery & Rollins' bond table $105. Mr. Wood, Mr. Rathjen, Mr. French, Mr. Jewell and practically all the other Aldermen agreed to sell the issue on the basis of $105 for five per cents which figured out exactly the same as 96 for four and a half per cents and Mr. Works was asked if his firm would bid that for the securities. He explained that while bonds at a premium were not so good as those below par at a lower rate of interest, if the Board would give him some

The Theatre

Surpassing anything heretofore seen at the Academy at like prices and equalling many of the $1.50 per seat shows, the Wayne Musical Comedy Company delighted a fairly large audience at the Academy last night.

The size of the audience was not in keeping with the merits of the production but that was perhaps because the name of the attraction sounded too much on a par with the average repertoire show," but tonight, no doubt, the audience will be much larger. "The White Hat" was the musical comedy presented last night and it was in snappy, bright style by a coterie of clever comedians and a large bunch of graceful, dainty chorus girls. There was sparkling fun a plenty and the song numbers were fine. In fact, they were superb, and encore after encore was given by the delighted audience. There were also many new features, such as the electrical swings.

Tonight the company will appear for the second and last time at the Academy and will present the jolly musical comedy, "The Circus Girl." The piece is said to be in every way the equal of the one last night, being full of musical numbers and dances. Seats for tonight are now on sale at Plummer's.

"The Runaways."

Friday night of this week the Academy will offer the big New York Casino success, "The Runaways," and the company that will be seen in the merry musical comedy here will be a large and most capable one.

It is headed by Geo. Ovey, the well known diminutive comedian, who is playing "Blutch," the jockey, and includes the famed Casino Beauty Chorus, which at one time, as one of the electrical surprises of the piece, does a revised edition of the Radium Dance, or Devil's Dance, as the improvement has been called abroad and whence it came bright and new this season. The press of North Carolina has highly praised the performances. During the State Fair last week "The Runaways" played two days in Raleigh and the press of the Capital City gave the performance most lavish notices. The Raleigh News and Observer not satisfied with paying the piece high tribute after the first performance presented it with this bouquet after the second:

"It was a house packed and overflowing that greeted the second appearance of "The Runaways" at the Academy of Music last night. It was an audience that thoroughly enjoyed the bright and dashing musical comedy for the applause showed it.

"It is rollicking, jolly music and fun that is handed out by "The Runaways" and the company last night proved to be a most capable one in handling the music, the run and the dancing."

A Charming Love Story.

The love interest in "The Traitor" is much greater than in its predecessor, "The Clansman." In fact the love story is the very keynote of the new play. This is as it should be for romance is always pleasing to the public. No theatre can succeed that does not have the patronage of women, and they always want a pretty love story in a play and a happy ending. No paly that tells such a fascinating love story as that of Stella Butler and John Graham could fail to make a great success. "The Traitor" will be seen at the Academy tomorrow matinee and night and when the sale of seats opens a large majority of those waiting in line to purchase seats will be women. So anxious are they to see this play the first season that they are unwilling to take chances by waiting for the men to do the buying. Seats for the matinee go on sale this morning.

Crystal Palace.

The new bill that went on at the Crystal Palace yesterday is another clever exponent of polite vaudeville, and, like its predecessors, is, no doubt, going to mean big business for this popular place of amusement. All new faces make-up the new bill, and, of course, the acts are also new and up-to-date. The Lacelles do comedy sketch work that is most ludicrous, and Billy Lacelle does some exceptionally clever blackface "stunts" and during which he introduces rapid-fire composing; that is a subject is given him by one in the audience and he at once proceeds to make a merry jungle of it. Leigh and Shone present a sketch that is decidedly out of the ordinary and in which is introduced most laughable and skilled "crazy" clog dancing. Then Georgina Clark, the Scotch nightingale, does a refined singing turn that calls forth admiration and applause. Her act besides being unique is very picturesque.

Performances are given every afternoon and night at the Palace, and small prices are still in vogue.

Mr. Behrends' Accident.

The Star is asked to state that it was a mistake as to Mr. S. Behrends having been injured Saturday on account of a mattress slipping on a wagon from which he fell. He says it was on account of the narrow passage on Front street, between Dock and Orange, between numerous carts backed up against the curbing on either side of the street and that he was thrown in turning the wagon from one side of this narrow passage to the other in order to allow an approaching street car to pass. The horse stumbled on the track, causing Mr. Behrends to lose his balance, the track being higher than the pavement. Mr. Behrends says that he was not rendered unconscious by the fall.

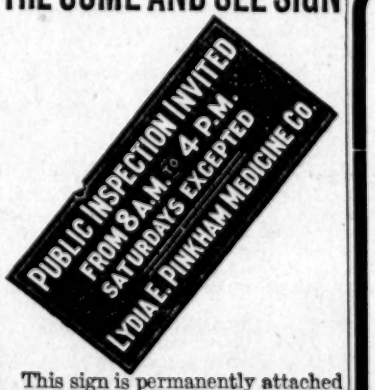
THE COME AND SEE SIGN



This sign is permanently attached to the front of the main building of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Company, Lynn, Mass.

What Does This Sign Mean?

It means that public inspection of the Laboratory and methods of doing business is honestly desired. It means that there is nothing about the business which is not "open and aboveboard."

It means that a permanent invitation is extended to anyone to come and verify any and all statements made in the advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Is it a purely vegetable compound made from roots and herbs — without drugs?

Come and See.

Do the women of America continually use as much of it as we are told?

Come and See.

Was there ever such a person as Lydia E. Pinkham, and is there any Mrs. Pinkham now to whom sick woman are asked to write?

Come and See.

Is the vast private correspondence with sick women conducted by women only, and are the letters kept strictly confidential?

Come and See.

Have they really got letters from over one million, one hundred thousand women correspondents?

Come and See.

Have they proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured thousands of these women?

Come and See.

This advertisement is only for doubters. The great army of women who know from their own personal experience that no medicine in the world equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female ills will still go on using and being benefited by it; but the poor doubting, suffering woman must, for her own sake, be taught confidence, for she also might just as well regain her health.

WOMAN TWICE KIDNAPPED

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Huntington, L. I., Oct. 19.—After spending a night of terror, hiding in a barn from friends who were searching the woods for her, Mrs. Abbie Meeriongola, who was twice kidnapped by two men and kept a prisoner in the woods, returned to her sister's home in this village today. She was so frightened and dazed by her experience at the hands of the kidnappers that she could tell no connected story of her ill treatment.

Mrs. Meeriongola is 17 years old, the daughter of a well-to-do farmer and the wife of a contractor to whom she was married six months ago. She was first dragged from her home on October 10th. A neighbor saw her being led to the woods between two armed men. Three days later after her father and husband had sought for her in vain, she staggered into her father's home and said that she could remember little of what had happened during her absence, except that she had been kept a prisoner in a swamp by two men.

A few days later another attempt to kidnap her from her father's house was made, but we frustrated by the appearance of her husband. Again last Saturday afternoon the two kidnappers raided her father's home and, frightening her mother with a revolver-shot again dragged the young wife away. The help of the police again was summoned and yesterday afternoon the officers found her in the custody of two men in the woods near Huntington. The girl was lying on a pile of brush while her captors were playing a game of cards. The kidnappers gave battle to the police, but were overcome and arrested. Alarmed and apparently half crazed, the girl fled into the swamp. The police pursued her for a short distance, but soon lost trace of her.

Nothing that I did seemed to give me any relief. When a friend told me about Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to try them. I procured a box from Robert R. THE MAINE HOME AGAIN

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Portsmouth, N. H., Oct. 19.—The United States battleship Maine after making a circuit of the globe, arrived here today. As the battleship was wraped into the dock the "Jackies" on board and those stationed in the yard gave vent to prolonged cheers.

The battleship Maine on swinging to anchor at the Portsomuth navy yard today ended, together with the battleship Alabama which arrivell at New York today, the most spectacular around-the-world cruise ever made by a first class modern warship. During the voyage which was started from Hampton Roads, and which consumed 308 days, the two vessels covered more than 35,000 miles.

The battleship will remain at Portsmouth 36 days for docking and will then further demonstrate her seaworthiness by going on the North Atlantic station as the flagship for a month or two. Following this she will go out of commission after three years of arduous service.

Delight over the home coming was expressed on the face of every "Jackie" seen today. A clever machinist's mate has prepared a history of the cruise. It was in the form of a blue covered pamphlet giving complete data of the battleship's performances. It appears that the battleship had steamed a total of 36,111 miles, although the aggregate distance from port to port was 33,292 miles. She burned about 22,000 tons of coal and her engines had made approximately 13,000,000 revolutions. The pamphlet notes that in passing the 22,000 towns of coal more than 250 shovels were worn out.

LAD LOST AN EYE

Johnnie Kramer, 12 years old, little son of Mr. W. R. Smith, officer at the police station, was the victim Saturday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock of a painful accident which has resulted in the loss of his left eye. The young fellow had gone out to the "Y" of the Atlantic Coast Line to carry breakfast to Mr. John Coker, watchman for the railroad at the Castle Haynes crossing. After delivering the breakfast pail to Mr. Coker young Smith was walking around the crossing and as soon as the watchman was through with his meal, noting the approach of a train he picked up a piece of terra-cotta pipe on the track and cast it to one side, not noticing the lad immediately in his rear. The fragment of pipe struck the boy in the eye, crushing the eye ball. Mr. Coker took him to Niestlie's drug store and later to the hospital, where it was found that the injury was such as to require the services of a specialist. Dr. J. G. Murphy was called and the eye had to be removed by operation. The boy was doing very well yesterday but it will be a week or more before he is able to leave the hospital.

THEIR FAREWELL.

Adjutant and Mrs. James Yates Will Leave Tomorrow Night.

The services at the Salvation Army Hall on Sunday evening were especially interesting. Adjutant Yates conducted his farewell services and appropriate talks were made by Mrs. Yates and Rev. R. W. Hogue, rector of St. James' Episcopal church. The meeting was attended by a large congregation, many of whom expresed their personal regret at the approaching departure of Mr. and Mrs. Yates, who leave for Lynchburg tomorrow night. The gathering was an impressive one and the talks of Mr. and Mrs. Yates, which were with reference to their work in this city, and the deep regret that they were to leave their many friends here, was of a touching nature. The meeting was concluded with a talk from Rev. Mr. Hogue, who will also leave soon for Chapel Hill, and who for some time has been an intimate friend of the Army work here to which he paid a high compliment in his pleasing utterances.

Philadelphia's Premier Beauty.

This young lady, the exquisite beauty of whose complexion has aroused the greatest admiration amongst the members of Philadelphia's fashionable younger set, recently confided to a few girl friends the secret of her extraordinary facial loveliness. The secret could not remain one long, and gossip in society circles tells us that this young woman had been greatly annoyed by many dark brown freckles, which obstinately defied removal until she became a user of Nadinola Facial Cream. With its aid, however, she not only quickly and easily banished these unsightly blemishes, but was also rejoiced to find her skin left in every way more beautiful than before—healthy, clear, soft and velvety, with all the freshness and exquisite loveliness of a perfect complexion. Nadinola Cream is sold in every high-class drug store, 50c. and $1.00 the package.

ARRESTED ON TRAIN

W. C. Capps Charged With Disposing of Mortgaged Property.

Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox yesterday afternoon arrested W. C. Capps, a whites man and former resident of Wilmington, on the Coast Line passenger train, shortly before the train left the union station at 3 o'clock, on a warrant sworn out on affidavit of Mr. N. E. Gallagher, charging the former with disposing of mortgaged property. Immediately after the arrest he was carried before Justice John J. Furlong and the case was continued until next Monday, and transferred to Magistrate A. Silverman. He gave bond of $150 with Mr. M. F. Croom, as security, for his appearance.

The charges against Mr. Capps originated last August while he lived in this city. During the past few months he has been residing in Onslow county, and was returning home when arrested. The case will be hard fought and the outcome interesting, both sides having employed attorneys, L. Clayton Grant, Esq., representing Mr. Capps and A. J. Marshall, Esq., appearing for the prosecution.

DEATH OF MR. CORBIN

Brother-in-Law of Mrs. S. E. Koonce Passed Away in Nebraska.

The sad intelligence of the death of Mr. C. C. Corbin, a former resident of this city and brother-in-law of Mrs. S. E. Koonce, was received by relatives in this city yesterday, and will be learned of by his Wilmington friends and those elsewhere with deep regret.

Mr. Corbin died suddenly Sunday afternoon at Lincoln, Neb., where he had been spending several weeks on a visit, having made his home in recent years at Harrisburg, Pa. He is survived by a wife, the only member of his immediate family, and among other relatives a father-in-law, Dr. E. W. Ward, of Onslow county. The remains will be brought to this city, accompanied by the bereaved wife on Thursday morning, and will be conveyed to the home of Dr. S. E. Koonce, No. 11 North Sixth street. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

THE CLEVELAND ARTICLE

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Grover Cleveland appeared before the grand jury today as a witness in an investigation into the authenticity of an article sold to New York Times by Broughton Brandenburgh, a magazine writer, and published in that paper in which her late husband appeared as favoring the election of Mr. Taft. It is understood that Mrs. Cleveland was questioned as to her knowledge of certain interviews which Mr. Brandeburgh had with the former President last Spring and as to the genuineness of the "Grover Cleveland" signature appended to the article in dispute. Other witnesses were Dr. Joseph Bryant, for many years President Cleveland's family physician, Richard Watson Gilder, an intimate friends, David N. Carvalho, a handwriting expert, John B. Finley, president of the College of the City of New York, and Trustee Hastings, of the Cleveland estate, William C. Reick and Charles M. Lincoln, of the editorial staff of the Times were also called. Mr. Brandeburgh was not a witness as he had been examined last week.

THOUGHT A MULE HAD KICKED HIM

KNOWS ARM WAS RESTORED

Mr. Mills Asks Man to Hit Him to Learn if the Use of His Arm Had Been Restored and Regretted it.

The public demonstration of the power possessed by Plant Juice Liniment is a leading feature of Col. Dillingham's methods of introducing his famous remedies. On these occasions the audience is made thoroughly acquainted with the nature and extent of the applicants injury, or affliction, after which an application of the liniment is made. The applicant is then asked to do something that will demonstrate the degree of relief he has obtained, and it was the thorough manner in which Mr. A. J. Larsen complied with the request a few nights ago that more than surprised Col. Dillingham's assistant, Mr. Alva A. Mills, and furnished a bit of fun that resulted in an uproar of laughter from the audience.

Mr. Larsen had been a victim of paralysis for some time and had completely lost the use of his right arm as a result of this affliction. On a recent occasion when Mr. Mills invited sufferers in the audience to come upon the platform for a free trial of Plant Juice Liniment Mr. Larsen was the first to accept, but with little hope of recovering any relief. The limp and useless arm that dangled at his side was given a thorough rubbing with Plant Juice Liniment and Mr. Mills then steped back and said: "Now let us see if your arm is improved; try it by striking me; see how hard you can hit me." It was evident to every one in the audience that Larsen hardly expected his arm to respond to his efforts to move it—but it did and landed a stunning blow upon Mr. Mill's chest with sufficient force to send that gentleman staggering against a convenient post for support. No one was more surprised than Mr. Larsen, whose joy at being again able to use his arm was unbounded and apparent, in spite of the fact that he wanted to show Mr. Mills how much he regretted having struck his benefactor such a severe blow.

There are many cases in which persons have been relieved of some serious injury, but rarely does the element of humor appear on these occasions. The restoration of a useless limb, or the hearing of a deaf person, is naturally a source of great joy to the person benefitted, and the audience also shares in this delight, but the scene is more often of an impressive than a humorous nature. Those who are assisted in this manner become fast friends of Plant Juice; they also have friends and relatives in the audience and in this way the fame of Plant Juice is carried from mouth to mouth. Its merit is firmly established, but to doubly assure the public of its worth and the honesty of the claims made for it, it is sold under a guarantee that it will do all that is claimed for it, or the money will be refunded after a weeks trial upon returning the cartoon and the unused portion of the medicine.

Conductor Fell From Car.

A car conveying the Carolina and Davidson football team to the city from the oyster roast at the Beach Saturday night ran for several blocks without a conductor, and the discovery that Conductor A. J. Flowers was missing was not made until the car reached 17th and Market streets. The car was immediately reversed and ran back, and it was found that Conductor Flowers had been thrown off and had sustained painful injury in the fall, which he received when the car turned the curve just below Delgado, near Noan's turnout. The conductor was not seriously injured, having only a bad laceration at the back of the head. He was given attention at Dr. A. H. Harriss' office and sent to his home.

assurance that they would take that for the issue as a compromise of the former proposition, he would submit it to his house and let the Board know at an official meeting to be called today. Mr. King wanted to know how the Board could say it had used reasonable diligence to sell the bonds if they had never been advertised on a five per cent. basis. Other members expressed the belief that $105 was as good as the city would ever get, regardless of how long they were advertised.

This phase of the sale was discussed at further length, Mr. French at first denying that the boards were under any obligation to Seasongood & Mayer and the City Attorney held the same legal view; in other words, that they stood in the same relation as any other bidder before the Board so far as the law is concerned. Mr. Wood and Mr. O'Brien stated that in agreeing to a sale at $105 they were leaving Seasongood & Mayer out of the consideration altogether; they believed that $105 was as good as the city could secure from any house. Mr. King said the only question with him was whether the city should sell fives without giving others a chance to bid on them. A vote was finally called, however, and the eight members present voted to accept $105 for fives, provided the offer was made by Seasongood & Mayer, except Alderman Ellis, who voted in the negative. Mr. King at first voted likewise but afterwards changed to the majority. Mr. Ellis explained his vote on the ground tha the was in favor of waiting for legislative authority to act one way or another.

Mr. Works took the matter up with his house last night by long distance telephone and will let the boards know today whether or not the firm will take the fives at $105, which figures out the same as their bid on 4 1-2 per cents at 96. Only Chairman McQueen, of the Board of Audit and Finance, was present when this action was taken by the Aldermen and any proposition will have to go finally to that body for whatever action is final.

Dr. King's New Discovery is the King of throat and lung remedies. For coughs and colds it has no equal. The first dose gives relief. Try it! Sold under guarantee at R. R. SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Rocky Mount Record: Saturday the A. C. L. shops at South Rocky Mount were idle in order to make the expenses of this shop come within the appropriation. They began work on Monday as usual.

—Wilson, N. C., Oct. 17.—The town of Wilson is to be honored by the presence of Governor R. B. Glenn on next Thursday night. The occasion of his visit here is to address the Bryan-Kitchin Club and the citizens generally.

—Salisbury, N. C., Oct. 17.—Ten men were robbed of cash in amounts ranging from five dollars to one hundred dollars while attending a demonstration in honor of Judge W. H. Taft here. Their pockets were picked and the robbers escaped without detection.

—New Bern Journal: A movement is on foot to ask the next legislature to create a new county from portions of Lenoir and Wayne and establish LaGrange as the capital. That town is the centre of one of the finest farming sections in Eastern North Carolina, is full of hustle and enterprise. The movement is popular and will no doubt accomplish its purpose.

—Raleigh, Oct. 18.—It is understood that former Associate Justice Walter A. Montgomery will sue Thomas Dixon for $50,000 damages for alleged slander in Dixon's reply to Montgomery's reference to him in a speech here last week. It is said Montgomery has retained Thomas M. Argo as counsel and will have two other prominent lawyers. No further information can be now obtained.

—John H. Mitchener in News and Observer: Since my last report I have received contributions for the Wyatt Memorial fund from the Cheedans Chapter and the Doughters Chapters at New Bern and the Daughters of Warrenton, N. C. I am authorized to say also that if the Daughters will show, by January 1st, 1909, $1,000, that another $1,000 will be placed with it.

—Newbern, N. C., Oct. 18.—The Craven county commissioners have called for all the outstanding county bonds which were issued some years ago for building bridges across the Neuse and Trent rivers, amounting to $10,000 in all. This will leave the county with only about $42,000 of bonded indebtedness and thes are new bonds issued last year for building a new jail and a number of steel bridges. The county owns 1,200 shares of stock in the A. & N. C. R. R., and the dividends on this stock more than pay interest on all bonds outstanding after this call.

—New Bern Sun: Mr. James C. Johnson, the blind man, a carrier on the force of The Sun, was met this morning on the corner of South Front and East Front streets, while he was on his route making his collections, by a strange man, who asked Mr. Johnson to give him change for a dollar bill. Mr. Johnson being a man ready and willing to do a fellow a kind ness proceeded to count out the change. The strange man gave the blind man in return a worthless advertising certificate of a New York City Cloak and Suit Company. The certificate was about the size of a dollar bill and had the feeling of a long worn dollar.

—Charlotte Observer: Another outrage was committed by a negro youth, John Johnson, on the crowded streets Saturday at noon when he assaulted Elridge Gribble, who was carrying $145 from a sub-station postoffice to the main office to deposit. The negro heard the money rattling in a box carried by the white messenger and leaped from a shoe shiner chair towards the white boy, knocking the box from his hands. The colored boy gathered up what money he could reach and fled. He was later captured under a cabin a mile from the scene of the highway robbery, and locked up. The daring nature of the robbery, on a street filled with people and in the open day, is a remarkable example of dangerous nerve exhibited by the criminally inclined.

—Charlotte, N. C., Oct. 17.—Murder will out, and although it was not quite so serious a case, the suffering of a negro patient at the colored hospital here, who had a bullet wound in the leg will likely lead to the arrest of the assailant of Conductor McCoy, whose skull was crushed by a negro Thursday night. The conductor was struck with a rock, and two pistol shots were also fired at him. The negro in the hospital, Clarence Alexander, has confessed that his companion was shooting at the conductor but hit him instead. His story, in view of the fact that the fracture of McCoy's skull appeared to have been done with a blunt instrument, bears some marks of truth.

—News and Observer: Thursday evening at the union depot some unknown pickpocket robbed Mr. J. L. Pugh, of Morrisville, of his purse containing a considerable sum of money and his keys and also some papers of value. The thief very considerately took the purse with the keys and the papers enclosed and dropped it very near Mr. Pugh's home where it was found next morning. Mr. Pugh had been to the fair and the cash left in the pocketbook was for incidental expenses and was not very large. However, some of the papers in the book were of much importance and Mr. Pugh greatly appreciates the kindness of the burglar in returning them as well as in bringing back the bunch of keys to his house. He desires to thank the polite pickpocket for his kindness and to assure him he is welcome to the cash.

Mrs. Chas. E. Smith of West Franklin Maine, says: "I like good things and have adopted Dr. King's New Life Pills as our family laxative medicine, because they are good and do their work without making a fuss about it." These painless purifiers sold at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. 25c.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 19.—The cotton market had a sharp reaction today and closed steady at a net decline of 7 to 12 points. Sales estimated at 200,000 bales.

The market opened easy at a decline of 5 to 11 points and at the lowest level of the day showed a net loss of 14 to 18 points on the active months under liquidation by recent buyers, local bear pressure, southern selling, and a withdrawal of the demand for winter positions from the large trade interests who were notable buyers toward the close of last week. The close was a little up from the lowest on covering. The declining tendency was promoted by lower cables, the failure of yesterday's conference in Lancashire to result in progress toward a settlement of the labor troubles, the big receipts and the good weather over the week end. There was a little buying in the late session on fear of unsettled weather in the southwest as wires from Fort Worth suggested the approach of a "norther," but there was no aggressive bull support and sentiment appeared to be more or less unsettled. Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to 1-8c lower.

Receipts at the ports today were 70,796 bales, against 57,176 last week and 55,826 last year; for the week 400,000, against 371,000 last week and 324,620 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans were 8,729 against 10,365 last year, and at Houston 12,150 against 8,964 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 10 points decline; middling uplands 9.20; do gulf 9.45; sales 200.

Futures opened easy and closed steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 19.—The dry goods market was moderately active in the primary cotton goods division and in the direction of spot inquiry. American shirtings have been reduced 1-2c a yard to 4 1-2c. Some lines of dress goods for spot shipment are in active demand. Raw silk is quiet and steady. Spot demand for underwear is good. Raw silk is quiet and steady. Spot demand for underwear is good. The jobbers are doing a moderate business for quick shipments .

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 19.—There was another demonstration today of resiliency of stock prices from the depressing influence of the European political outlook. Opening prices were established at a point which more than made up the decline of the last of the week caused by the new threatened hostilities in the Balkans. The level of prices being restored the market became virtually stagnant. Foreign markets fell into a similar condition of neglect after the recovery in prices. The fact became obvious here that the great financial powers were resting on their oars. This passive attitude did not involve any wide drift from position as the current of the price movement was sluggish to the principal of stagnation. Incoming advices continue to show progress in business and undiminished confidence . The strength of the present banking position does not preclude the paying of serious attention to the swift loan expansion of the last few weeks, with contraction of reserves and prospect of further drain. There were inquiries today for gold for export at the assay office and a shipment on Thursday is considered likely. Neglect made prices vulnerable to some reaction from the opening level although there was nothing like activity at any time during the day. Bonds were irregular.

Total sales, par value were $2,366,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today were 314,000 shares.

Should a Man Economize On His Clothes?

If we had high-priced clothing to sell, we could probably convince you that you couldn't afford to wear cheap clothing.

No man can afford to wear clothes that discount him in the eyes of everybody he meets. But you can't walk a block in this city without passing many men who are wearing clothing that sets badly on them; is curled at the edges, and drawn out of shape—because they paid a few dollars less for it than they would have need to pay for perfect-fitting clothes.

And the perfect-fitting clothing would not only make them look better and feel better every minute they had it on, BUT WOULD WEAR HALF AS LONG AGAIN, at least, and so be cheaper in the end than the clothes that never gave any satisfaction, first or last.

But, while SOLKY CLOTHING is the BEST that is known, ready-made, in style, workmanship and finish, it costs just about the same as the less worthy kinds.

Men's Sack Suits, $15 to $28
Men's Fall Overcoats, $15 to $25
Men's Raincoats, $15 to $25

MEN'S COLORED STIF BOSOM SHIRTS.

Many men of the very best taste insist upon wearing stiff-bosom shirts. We have provided two unusually handsome lines in patterns that will suit the most fastidious. Made of fine percales in beautiful printings. Some of the shirts are made coat style with attached cuffs, at $1.50 EACH; others, open front and back, with attached or separate cuffs $1.00 EACH.

We give Gold Band Trading Stamps on all cash purchases.

THE HAINS CASE AIRED IN COURT

Wife's Application For Alimony and Custody of Children Denied.

AFFIAVIT BY THE WIFE

She Gives Her Version of the Trouble With Her Husband — Charges Great Brutality on His Part. Serious Charges.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 19.—The application of Mrs. Claudia L. Hains for alimony and counsel fees to defend a suit for divorce brought by Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., awaiting trial for killing William E. Annis was denied by Justice Carr in Brooklyn today. Mrs. Hain's request that she be granted the custody of her children was also denied. Annis was named as co-respondent in Captain Hains suit for divorce.

Justice Carr in his decision said that Captain Hains has no means from which to pay either alimony or counsel fees as his salary has been suspended, since his imprisonment and his own small means are needed for his own defense. The court also gave as a reason that Mrs. Hains is in a comfortable home with her parents in Massachussetts.

"As to the custody of the children," said Justice Carr, "a similar embarrassment exists. The children are with the father's parents outside this State and the defendant has no home in this State and declares that if she gets possession of the children she will take them to Massachussetts. I feel it advisable at this moment to disturb the situation."

Mrs. Hains was given permission to renew her application if the conditions change enough to warrant it.

Mr. Hains affidavit in reply to her husband's divorce suit was made public today. In it she declared that when Captain Hains returned from San Francisco to Fort Hancock on Sandy Hook, on May 29th last he accused her of intimacy with William E. Annis, basing his allegation on a letter which Captain Hains said he had received from his brother, T. Jenkins Hains denied the accusation and at he suggestion Captain Hains invited Annis to their home, after which all three went riding in Annis' automobile. After they returned Mrs. Hains avers, the Captain and Annis sat up until 3 o'clock A. M. drinking and smoking, and seemed very friendly. She declares Captain Hains did not show his brother's letter to Annis nor ask him to explain the charges. On the following day, Mrs. Hains said, her husband went to call on his father, General P. C. Hains, returned at 2 o'clock A. M., June 1, pulled her out of bed, again accused her of having had relations with Annis and threatened to shoot her. General Hains called that day, Mrs. Hains asserted, and upon hearing the captain's acusations said he would shoot Annis on sight. Later that day Captain Hains' brother, T. J. Hains, called with a lawyer and asked her a lot of questions while she was dazed. At the solicitation of T. Jenkins Hains, Mrs. Hains said she took a drink of whiskey and then, at her husband's order, signed a paper which was not read to her. This, she believes was the confession which he says she made. That night the post surgeon and some friends came and treated her for a wound over the eye which Mrs. Hains said she received from the captain. Early the folowing morning Captain Hains and his brother entered and with a pistol drove them out. "My husband told me," Mrs. Hains declares, "that I would have to get out of the house the next day and if my mother would not take me I should go and live with Annis. As my husband dropped his pistol on the floor his brother said: 'Save that for the other party.' "

Mrs. Hains denied that she had been guilty of any improprietory with Annis and said she believed her husband's act and his charge were prompted by his brother, T. Jenkins Hains, who threatened to injure her for refusing his advance. "He endeavored several times while my husband was away to make advances," she asserted, "going so far as to enter my room. I repulsed him and he declared that he would be revenged."

BRYAN GREETED BY THOUSANDS

Declared to Chicago Audience That He Grows More Confident Each Day.

TOURED ILLINOIS YESTERDAY

Repeatedly Stated in His Speeches That the Republicans are Now Preparing to Purchase the Election—The Campaign.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Chicago, Oct. 19.—William J. Bryan arrived in Chicago tonight at 8 o'clock in a blaze of glory after an all day trip through Illinois. Thousands assembled at the union depot to greet him as his special pulled in an hour and fifteen minutes late, and in the crowd to do him honor were a large delegation from the Cook county Democracy, members of the committee and all the local Democratic candidates, including the candidates for Congress who escorted him in fifty automobiles to Pilsen Park, where he addressed a great throng. As he emerged from the station, a great quantity of red fire and Roman candles were set off, the crowd all the while wildly cheering. As the long procession of motor cars passed down the street their occupants continued to pyrotchnic display. From Pilsen Park, the Democratic candidate was escorted to Arcade Hall where another big crowd was on hand and accorded him an ovation. Many in the Pilsen park audience were laboring people. "If I am elected President," said Mr. Bryan, "and the more I travel and mingle with the people, the more I am convinced that I will be elected—if I am elected, I intend to have a Secretary of Labor as a member of the cabinet. The affairs of the working men of this country are too great not to have a representative on the President's advisory board. From this secretary I should seek advice on legislation of interest to the working man."

Taking up the subject of publication of campaign funds, Mr. Bryan said: "I asked a large audience whether they were in favor of the Republican method of publishing contributions after the campaign or the Democratic way of publishing them before. I asked all in favor of the Republican way to hold up their hands. Not one hand was displayed."

The feature of William J. Bryan's journey through his native State of Illinois today was the accusation, repeatedly made that the Republican party was now preparing to purchase the election. The statement, first made at Alton, caused a distinct sensation. The Democrats, he said, were asking only for a hundred thousand dollars with which to finish the work of the campaign while the Republicans were asking for a million. "What do they need the money for now?" he inquired and answering his own question, he declared that it was for use on election day, "as they have used it year after year."

One of the surpising features of the trip was the monster demonstration accorded him at Joliet. But ten days ago he spoke in the same place. He talked mainly on the labor question. Vociforous applause greeted him when he said: "My friends I think too much of the next generation to stop my efforts to rid this country of the evil of private monopoly. I am willing to go down on my knees every morning and say to my Father in Heaven, 'Give us this day our daily bread,' but God forbid that I should make my countrymen go down on their knees at morning and pay to trust magnate 'Give us this day our daily bread,' and have him answer 'I will if you will vote the ticket I want you to.' You cannot afford to fasten that sort of system on this country or any other country."

A TROLLEY CAR COLLISION.

One Person Killed and Fifteen Wounded in a Street Car Collision.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 19.—A. E. Smith, of Nevada, Mo., was killed, and fifteen passengers were hurt today when three trolley cars on the Troost Avenue line collided at 13th street and Troost avenue.

The air-brake failed on one of the cars at Tenth and Troost and the car rushed back down a steep hill. Two other cars coming up the hill were crowded with passengers bound down town. These cars, for three blocks before the cars finally collided, ran back in an attempt to avoid a collision. Men and women jumped to the street and many were hurt.

A wrecking car collided with the runaway trolley car after the latter had come to a standstill, and the crew were forced to jump to save their lives, the foreman being badly hurt.

Federal Supreme Court Denies Pierce's Application for Rehearing.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 19.—In the extradition proceedings of Henry Clay Pierce, chairman of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company of St. Louis vs. Chief of Police Creecy of that city, the Supreme Court of the United States today denied Pierce's motion for a re-hearing. Pierce resisted an application for his removal to Texas in connection with the prosecution of his company on the charge of violating the Texas anti-trust laws. The petition for a re-hearing was based on a contention that the court's decision turned upon the point as to whether Pierce had taken a false oath, which it was declared had not been argued before the court.

FLEET ACCORDED WARM RECEPTION

Conceded by American Officers to be Heartiest so Far on World's Tour.

AMONG THE JAPANESS

Admiral Sperry Will Convey to the Emperor a Message From President Roosevelt Wednesday. Existing Friendship.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Tokio, Oct. 20.—The reception accorded the American Atlantic fleet by the Government and people of Japan is conceded by the American naval officers to be the heartiest and most perfectly carried out of the many receptions received by the fleet since it sailed from Hampton Roads. Rear Admiral Sperry said to the Associated Press today that the welcome given the fleet and its officers and men had been so carefully planned and carried out to the most minute detail that a lasting impression has been stamped upon the mind of every American who has witnessed it.

The enthusiasm of the American and Japanese fleets are fraternizing everywhere in Tokio and Yokohoma. Every wish of the American sailors is anticipated, and each blue jacket finds an English speaking guide among the Japanese sailors. The American uniform is the open zaney everywhere, the cordiality of the Japanese extending to the inhabitants of the most remote villages. It is impossible to doubt the sincerity of the Japanese. The American officers and sailors are already beginning to understand the fact that the evident desire on the part of the Japanese for the friendship of America is not founded upon opportunism, but finds its source in a sincere wish to show that such friendship, at least on the present Japanese has existed, and that this visit of the fleet has merely afforded the Japanese an opportunity for the expression of that feeling.

Early on Tuesday morning, Admiral Sperry will be received at the Imperial Palace. On the morning of Wednesday the admirals and the captains of the fleet will be the guest of the Emperor at the Palace. Admiral Sperry will convey to the Emperor a message from President Roosevelt. The words of this message have not been given out, but there is reason to believe that it breaths a spirit of friendship and sympathy and expresses keen appreciation of the traditional friendship between the two nations and an earnest wish for the strengthening and continuace of the friendly relations of the past. It is uncertain what reply the Emperor will make when this message is presented by Admiral Sperry.

TO CANCEL APPOINTMENTS.

The Condition of Taft's Throat Will Require This to be Done.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Oct. 19.—That Judge Taft's voice is in such bad condition that he will have to cancel many of his dates for speaking was indicated by Chairman Hitchcock on his return today from a morning visit with Mr. Taft at Newark, N. J. This means a re-arrangement of Mr. Taft's itinerary.

The re-arrangement will cut out all of Mr. Taft's day speeches, and one of his night speeches. The latter is the speech which had been planned for Chicago next Saturday night It is also expected that most of Mr. Taft's dates in West Virginia will be cancelled. The dates for Mr. Taft's speeches in Connecticut also may be cancelled.

Dr. Richardson, the throat specialist, who is traveling with Mr. Taft, is of the opinion that Mr. Taft's voice has been chiefly affected by his outdoor speaking.

The Swine or the Flower?

Ah me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty,
Wherein a drove of wallowing swine were barred,
Whose banquet shocked the nostril and the eye;
Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of lard!"
I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first
One glistening mass of roses pure and white,
With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage nursed;
And, as I lingered o'er the lovely sight,
The summer breeze, that cooled that Southern scene,
Whispered, "Behold the source of COTTOLENE!"

LABOR ELEMENT AT WORK

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, Oct. 19.—Another step in the participation of organized labor in the political campaign was taken today when more organizers were ordered to Ohio by the American Federation of Labor, and Secretary Morrison of the Federation left on a speech-making trip in the East.

Mr. Morrison will speak at Elmira, N. Y., tomorrow night, Rochester Wednesday night, Ithica Thursday, Syracuse Friday and Providence, R. I., next Sunday. Mr. Morrison said that the organizers who are going into Ohio are in addition to some already there and that labor representatives in every city in the State, largely directed by representing the central bodies there are working in the campaign.

NASHVILLE PEOPLE

Think The Great Andes A Wonder,

One of the leading Nashville papers says: "For the past few weeks this city has been wild over an individual who is known to the public as Andes, The Great Advertiser. That he has the right name is admitted by everyone, for his headquarters is the most popular place in the city at present. All classes can be seen lined up waiting his or her turn to have a word with this man Andes. That the medicines he is introducing have real merit is proven by the interviews had with different ones by a press representative. Mr. Will Stroud, the popular blacksmith of 423 Deadrick, said: "This man Andes' Medicine has done me a world of good. And to think I have been a sufferer for the past twelve months with what the doctors called nervous indigestion. It had affected my heart action and caused me to become nervous and not able to work long at a time. Would also have shortness of breath. Hot flashes, then cold sensations would come over me all of a sudden; then would have bloating and fullness after meals. I have used just two bottles and am now as well as ever."

Come to our store and we will tell you more about these Great Medicines.

SCHOOL SHOES

TEACHER—Yes, Master Hans, you may tell us why the EDUCATOR is the best shoe for boys and girls.

HAPPY HANS—Because it gives lots of room for all five toes to grow, and never hurts the feet. My pa says that boy's EDUCATORS wear longer than other kinds. He says he is going to wear EDUCATORS after this.

TEACHER—You are perfectly correct, Hans. EDUCATORS are Nature's own shape, and "let the feet grow as they should." I wear EDUCATORS, too. You ought to tell Sorry Sam's mother about your shoes. They are made by Rice & Hutchins.
